In the town of Arzúa, very well-known gastronomically for the San Simón cheese, free-range chickens or capons. We cross the River Miño and then go through several villages until we arrive at the Santiago airport, where we can meet the French Way. We leave the grandiose Corredoir de Galicia behind us and continue our way through Santiso and then, near the Santiago airport, it meets the French Way in Arzúa. We leave the grandiose Corredoir de Galicia behind us and continue our way through Santiso and then, near the Santiago airport, it meets the French Way in Arzúa.

We take the road to Sobrado: the inspiration behind Ramón Laredo, the poet of Galician eclecticism. The Parador tourist hotel.

At the same time, we are always on the French Way, which, in the 12th century, united the Santiago Cathedral with the town of Arzúa. In the small town of Arzúa, we will pass through the monastic complex of San Pedro de Sobrado, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight.

At the same time, we are always on the French Way, which, in the 12th century, united the Santiago Cathedral with the town of Arzúa. In the small town of Arzúa, we will pass through the monastic complex of San Pedro de Sobrado, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight.

At the same time, we are always on the French Way, which, in the 12th century, united the Santiago Cathedral with the town of Arzúa. In the small town of Arzúa, we will pass through the monastic complex of San Pedro de Sobrado, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight.

At the same time, we are always on the French Way, which, in the 12th century, united the Santiago Cathedral with the town of Arzúa. In the small town of Arzúa, we will pass through the monastic complex of San Pedro de Sobrado, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight.

At the same time, we are always on the French Way, which, in the 12th century, united the Santiago Cathedral with the town of Arzúa. In the small town of Arzúa, we will pass through the monastic complex of San Pedro de Sobrado, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight.

At the same time, we are always on the French Way, which, in the 12th century, united the Santiago Cathedral with the town of Arzúa. In the small town of Arzúa, we will pass through the monastic complex of San Pedro de Sobrado, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight.

At the same time, we are always on the French Way, which, in the 12th century, united the Santiago Cathedral with the town of Arzúa. In the small town of Arzúa, we will pass through the monastic complex of San Pedro de Sobrado, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight.

At the same time, we are always on the French Way, which, in the 12th century, united the Santiago Cathedral with the town of Arzúa. In the small town of Arzúa, we will pass through the monastic complex of San Pedro de Sobrado, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight.

At the same time, we are always on the French Way, which, in the 12th century, united the Santiago Cathedral with the town of Arzúa. In the small town of Arzúa, we will pass through the monastic complex of San Pedro de Sobrado, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight.

At the same time, we are always on the French Way, which, in the 12th century, united the Santiago Cathedral with the town of Arzúa. In the small town of Arzúa, we will pass through the monastic complex of San Pedro de Sobrado, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight.

At the same time, we are always on the French Way, which, in the 12th century, united the Santiago Cathedral with the town of Arzúa. In the small town of Arzúa, we will pass through the monastic complex of San Pedro de Sobrado, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight.

At the same time, we are always on the French Way, which, in the 12th century, united the Santiago Cathedral with the town of Arzúa. In the small town of Arzúa, we will pass through the monastic complex of San Pedro de Sobrado, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight.

At the same time, we are always on the French Way, which, in the 12th century, united the Santiago Cathedral with the town of Arzúa. In the small town of Arzúa, we will pass through the monastic complex of San Pedro de Sobrado, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight.

At the same time, we are always on the French Way, which, in the 12th century, united the Santiago Cathedral with the town of Arzúa. In the small town of Arzúa, we will pass through the monastic complex of San Pedro de Sobrado, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight.

At the same time, we are always on the French Way, which, in the 12th century, united the Santiago Cathedral with the town of Arzúa. In the small town of Arzúa, we will pass through the monastic complex of San Pedro de Sobrado, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight.

At the same time, we are always on the French Way, which, in the 12th century, united the Santiago Cathedral with the town of Arzúa. In the small town of Arzúa, we will pass through the monastic complex of San Pedro de Sobrado, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight.

At the same time, we are always on the French Way, which, in the 12th century, united the Santiago Cathedral with the town of Arzúa. In the small town of Arzúa, we will pass through the monastic complex of San Pedro de Sobrado, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight.

At the same time, we are always on the French Way, which, in the 12th century, united the Santiago Cathedral with the town of Arzúa. In the small town of Arzúa, we will pass through the monastic complex of San Pedro de Sobrado, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight.

At the same time, we are always on the French Way, which, in the 12th century, united the Santiago Cathedral with the town of Arzúa. In the small town of Arzúa, we will pass through the monastic complex of San Pedro de Sobrado, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight.

At the same time, we are always on the French Way, which, in the 12th century, united the Santiago Cathedral with the town of Arzúa. In the small town of Arzúa, we will pass through the monastic complex of San Pedro de Sobrado, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight.

At the same time, we are always on the French Way, which, in the 12th century, united the Santiago Cathedral with the town of Arzúa. In the small town of Arzúa, we will pass through the monastic complex of San Pedro de Sobrado, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight.

At the same time, we are always on the French Way, which, in the 12th century, united the Santiago Cathedral with the town of Arzúa. In the small town of Arzúa, we will pass through the monastic complex of San Pedro de Sobrado, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight. We will also pass through the monastery of Santiso, where the Gothic church is the main sight.
Beyond the Camino: The Northern Way

The northern Camino routes, both the French and the Bayonne, went through the city walls of Santiago de Compostela, and the narrow streets and alleys that still dominate the city today. In the 6th century, the cathedral of Santiago was built, and it became the capital of the Kingdom of Asturias and Galicia. At that time (9th and 10th centuries), the capital of the Kingdom of Asturias was Oviedo. Later, Santiago de Compostela became the capital of the Kingdom of Galicia and Galicia and Oviedo became the capital of the Kingdom of Asturias.

The northern Camino routes, both the French and the Bayonne, went through the city walls of Santiago de Compostela, and the narrow streets and alleys that still dominate the city today. In the 6th century, the cathedral of Santiago was built, and it became the capital of the Kingdom of Asturias and Galicia. At that time (9th and 10th centuries), the capital of the Kingdom of Asturias was Oviedo. Later, Santiago de Compostela became the capital of the Kingdom of Galicia and Galicia and Oviedo became the capital of the Kingdom of Asturias.

San Cibrao, Cervo

Sargadelos Factory, Cervo

The Roman baths are inside the building which also houses the Balneario de Tui. The baths are open to the public and are highly recommended for the digestive tract and the kidneys. The countryside here is famous for its very special cool medicinal mineral waters, which are especially ideal, as their sodium and potassium content is low.

And now, inside, you will find an attractive historic town. It was important in the 15th century, when the Duchy of Braganza was part of the Kingdom of Portugal. The Ducal Palace is a notable example of the architecture of the time. The palace is open to the public and is highly recommended for its grand architecture.

NORTH OF BEYOND THE CAMINO...

La Ciencia y la Cultura

Santiago de Compostela

Cidade da Cultura, das do Sar - open up before you, near the trails running upwards through the new inland from Foz is

Santos

Temple of Mithra

Muxía —, Vilalba, and the magnificent monastery of Sobrado dos Monxes, having left the Northern Way meets the French Way.

In Arzúa, the Northern Way meets the French Way.

—, Vilalba, and the magnificent monastery of Sobrado dos Monxes, having left the Northern Way meets the French Way.

In Arzúa, the Northern Way meets the French Way.

—, Vilalba, and the magnificent monastery of Sobrado dos Monxes, having left...