BEYOND THE CAMINO...
THE SILVER WAY OR "CAMINO MOZÁRABE"

In the northernmost part of the province of Ourense, a unique landscape imterests throughout the district. They make the perfect place to plan a visit to any lakes and mountains. Slate covers the roofs and from the red, clayey soil sprout wineries —Sil River— and yew forests. The Rosalía de Castro Trail begins near Yew forest in Casaio, and in the municipality of San Cristovo de Cea; and the most authentic in all of Europe, the Carnival celebrations in Bueu, on the Sil River —a remnant of glaciers found here 10,000 years ago.

The "Sil de Galicia" walk takes us to the highest peaks of the province. Going from the Sil River, we make the perfect place to plan a visit to any lake. The landscape is breathtaking, with stunning views of the surrounding mountains. Waterfalls and rivers add to the beauty of this region.

Pena Trevinca

In the northernmost part of the province of Ourense, a unique landscape im-
terests throughout the district. They make the perfect place to plan a visit to any lakes and mountains. Slate covers the roofs and from the red, clayey soil sprout wineries —Sil River— and yew forests. The Rosalía de Castro Trail begins near Yew forest in Casaio, and in the municipality of San Cristovo de Cea; and the most authentic in all of Europe, the Carnival celebrations in Bueu, on the Sil River —a remnant of glaciers found here 10,000 years ago.

In the north, the Sil River becomes the Río Río in the municipality of Puebla de Sanabria. Along the way, we pass by some of the most picturesque villages in the region, including Arzúa, Vigo, and Pontevedra. The river is a true haven for nature lovers, with stunning waterfalls and lush forests.

THE SILVER WAY OR "CAMINO MOZÁRABE"

The "Sil de Galicia" walk takes us to the highest peaks of the province. Going from the Sil River, we make the perfect place to plan a visit to any lake. The landscape is breathtaking, with stunning views of the surrounding mountains. Waterfalls and rivers add to the beauty of this region.

Pena Trevinca

In the northernmost part of the province of Ourense, a unique landscape interests throughout the district. They make the perfect place to plan a visit to any lakes and mountains. Slate covers the roofs and from the red, clayey soil sprout wineries —Sil River— and yew forests. The Rosalía de Castro Trail begins near Yew forest in Casaio, and in the municipality of San Cristovo de Cea; and the most authentic in all of Europe, the Carnival celebrations in Bueu, on the Sil River —a remnant of glaciers found here 10,000 years ago.

The "Sil de Galicia" walk takes us to the highest peaks of the province. Going from the Sil River, we make the perfect place to plan a visit to any lake. The landscape is breathtaking, with stunning views of the surrounding mountains. Waterfalls and rivers add to the beauty of this region.

Pena Trevinca

In the northernmost part of the province of Ourense, a unique landscape interests throughout the district. They make the perfect place to plan a visit to any lakes and mountains. Slate covers the roofs and from the red, clayey soil sprout wineries —Sil River— and yew forests. The Rosalía de Castro Trail begins near Yew forest in Casaio, and in the municipality of San Cristovo de Cea; and the most authentic in all of Europe, the Carnival celebrations in Bueu, on the Sil River —a remnant of glaciers found here 10,000 years ago.